Prattaugan

Glooms of live oaks, braided and woven
With intricate shades of dripping moss, and Blushing roses . . .
Where lovers stroll through the green
colonnades,
Sounds the distant echoes of long-gone
Southern days.

Dedication

We, the Prattaugan Annual Staff, respectfully dedicate this, the 13th volume of the Prattaugan, to one who, by her instruction in the class-room, her personality, and influence, has constantly been a help and inspiration to us. Through her loyalty and efficiency she has gained the friendship and respect not only of the Home Economics girls but also of the student body and the fellow members of the faculty.

Class Prophecy

As I entered my class room on September 4, at Phillips in Havana, Cuba, I began to think of the fun I had at school at A.C.H.S. and how I dreamed of teaching. The bell brought me back to reality as about twenty-five children started running in and sitting down. When I started to look at my roll, I saw the name Gordon Allen, Jr. I remembered that Gordon Allen was the first on our roll at A.C.H.S. I asked Gordon, Jr., if the Gordon Allen I knew at school was his father. Sure enough, he was. Gordon came over to the school that afternoon and I happened to see him.

"Hi, there, what brought you here?" I asked.

"Oh, I am running a large Experimental farm here," he answered.

"Have you heard from any of the people in our senior class? I had a letter from my girl friend, Joyce Ross, the other day. She is a great designer in Bahama," I began.

"You know," he added, "I was reading in the paper that Austin Golson, now Vice-President, is coming down here in May. Guess who his Secretary is? Betty Ann Herman! Won't it be nice to see them?"

"Yes, we always knew he would succeed," I replied. "Did you know Annette Rawlinson is now a professional singer? Her latest record that sold over a million copies is 'Love on the Ole Plantation.' "

"You know," he added, "Beverly Johnson finally made Hollywood! She has put Jayne Mansfield out of pictures completely!"

Gordon, Jr., came up so we departed.

On my way home from school I stopped in to see my dentist, Tommy Walker. To my surprise Martha Singleton was his new receptionist and Katherine Lavender was his new nurse. There was a little confusion at the door as Mary Bell Hayne walked in with a few children. I learned that she was a nurse at an orphans' home there. in town We began to talk, and I learned that Myrtis Bone was teaching Home Economics in the next town, that Ethel Hardy was teaching music, and that Harriet Pigford was a nurse working with Mary Bell.

When I left the dentist office, I went down to the Piggly Wiggly. Who should I run into but Dan Dismukes, the head butcher? We began to talk.

"Did you know," he began, "that Nancy Newton is now modeling for Dempsey Smith and that Madelon Murfee is working with Wire Service as a reporter in Darkest Africa?"

"No," I said in surprise, "and did you know that June Johnson is now a Commercial Artist in Paris and that Randall May owns his own race horse, the famous 'Rebel'!"

"No," laughed Dan. "I hear that Lomax Howell is trying to get the government to buy his satellite."

At this time Horace Meeks yelled for Dan to come help him; Horace is the assistant butcher, Emogene Loften is the cashier, and Joe Fuller is the owner of the store along with three others.

As I walked home, I met up with Beverly Drew and Kay Hamilton. I learned that Kay is now the "First Lady" and that Beverly is a big Social Bug in New York.

As I settled down that night to watch television, I turned it on just in time to see that Jimmy Garnette had his own Comedy Show, "Jimmie's Jivey Jokes," and his guest was Derrell Billingsley and his Jazz Band, known as the "C.C.'s" (Cool Cats). Later that night when the fights came on, none other than the great heavy-weight wrestler, Kenneth Ballard, was meeting to fight with Steve McRae, Mike Fisher was the referee.

The next morning as I read the morning paper, I saw that Edward Jackson had his own Motorcycle business.

As I caught the taxi, I recognized the driver as James DeVaughn. I began talking to him about what I had learned from the others I had met up with.

"Have you heard that Mac Golson and Peyton Herman are playing for the Bears?" he began.

"No," I answered. "Do you know what became of Carol Moncrief and Elizabeth Caver?"

"Oh, they're married and live in Alaska."

"Well, what about Lamar Estes?" I asked.

"He owns the taxi company that I work for," James said.

As I walked down the walk to the school, some one tapped me on my back. I turned around to see Jere Phillips, the principal. He began to talk . . . .

"Did you know Dot Wyatt has a Majorette Clinic at Auburn?"

"No," I answered, "What about Peggy Walters and Pat Tatum?"

Peggy has her own night club, and Pat and Annette Wyatt are cigarette girls there," he answered.

"How did Malcolm Smith make out with his oil wells here in Cuba?" I asked.

"Fine," he said, "Silas Walker is now Cuba's only millionnaire."

"Really? Did you know Dot Sims was married and living in Rome, and that Leonard and Leroy Wright have their own junkyard in Prattville?" I added.

The day passed quickly; returning to my apartment, I met up with Virginia Hull, a tourist. While we were talking, Jerry Hawkins came in selling candy and cigarettes. Virginia told me that Robert Lee Hull was owner of a ranch out side of town. Bobby Hand and Mike Breedlove are a couple of his work hands.

As I entered the elevator, I recognized Tommy Thompson.

"Hi," I said, "What are you doing now?"

"I am running for President of Cuba. Linda Wadsworth is my campaign manager," he replied.

"What about Gwen and Marion Boggs and Joe Huston?" I asked.

"Marion now owns his own Pottery, and Gwen keeps his books for him," he said. "Joe is still running from the girls!!"

I later learned that Neeley Strength is still E2 in the National Guards and that Richard Ellington is still A3/c in the Air National Guards. Naomi Headley and Marianne Noland own a fur shop in Venice. Gay Lloyd and Zelda Jenison are digging for gold on the Gold Coast in Africa.

As I settled down, I was real happy to know what all the seniors in my class at A.C.H.S. were doing. I sure enjoyed talking to everyone.

I, Joyce Ross, will my cuteness to Betty Hunt.

I, Robert Hull, will my witty laugh to Billy Barber and Ralph Drew.

I, Beverly Johnson, will my swing and sway walk to Patsy Jackson.

I, June Johnson, leave to Adelaide Bell and Glenda Burt my blushes whe n around boys.

We, Madelon Murfee and Marianne Noland, leave our dating ability to Carole Pierce.

We, Gay Lloyd and Zelda Jemison, leave our ability to get along with Mr. Turner to Peggy Pogue and Mary Jo Rawlinson.

We, Sybil Cook and Annette Wyatt, leave our wit to Elaine Baily.

We, Randell May and Bobby Hand, will our ability to be "seen and not heard" to Steve Gilbert.

I, Malcolm Smith, leave my ability to get along with Miss Tankersley ot Steve McRae.

I, Pat Tatum, will my dependability to Nelda Hunt and Elizabeth Lawrence.

I, Linda Wadsworth, leave my position as Captain of the Cheerleaders to Jane Yarbrough.

I, Peggy Walters, will my temper to Barbara Meeks and Eleanor Perry.

I, Dot Wyatt, leave my figure to Ann Northington.

We, Leroy and Leonard Wright, leave all of our "talents" to all the boys of A.C.H.S.

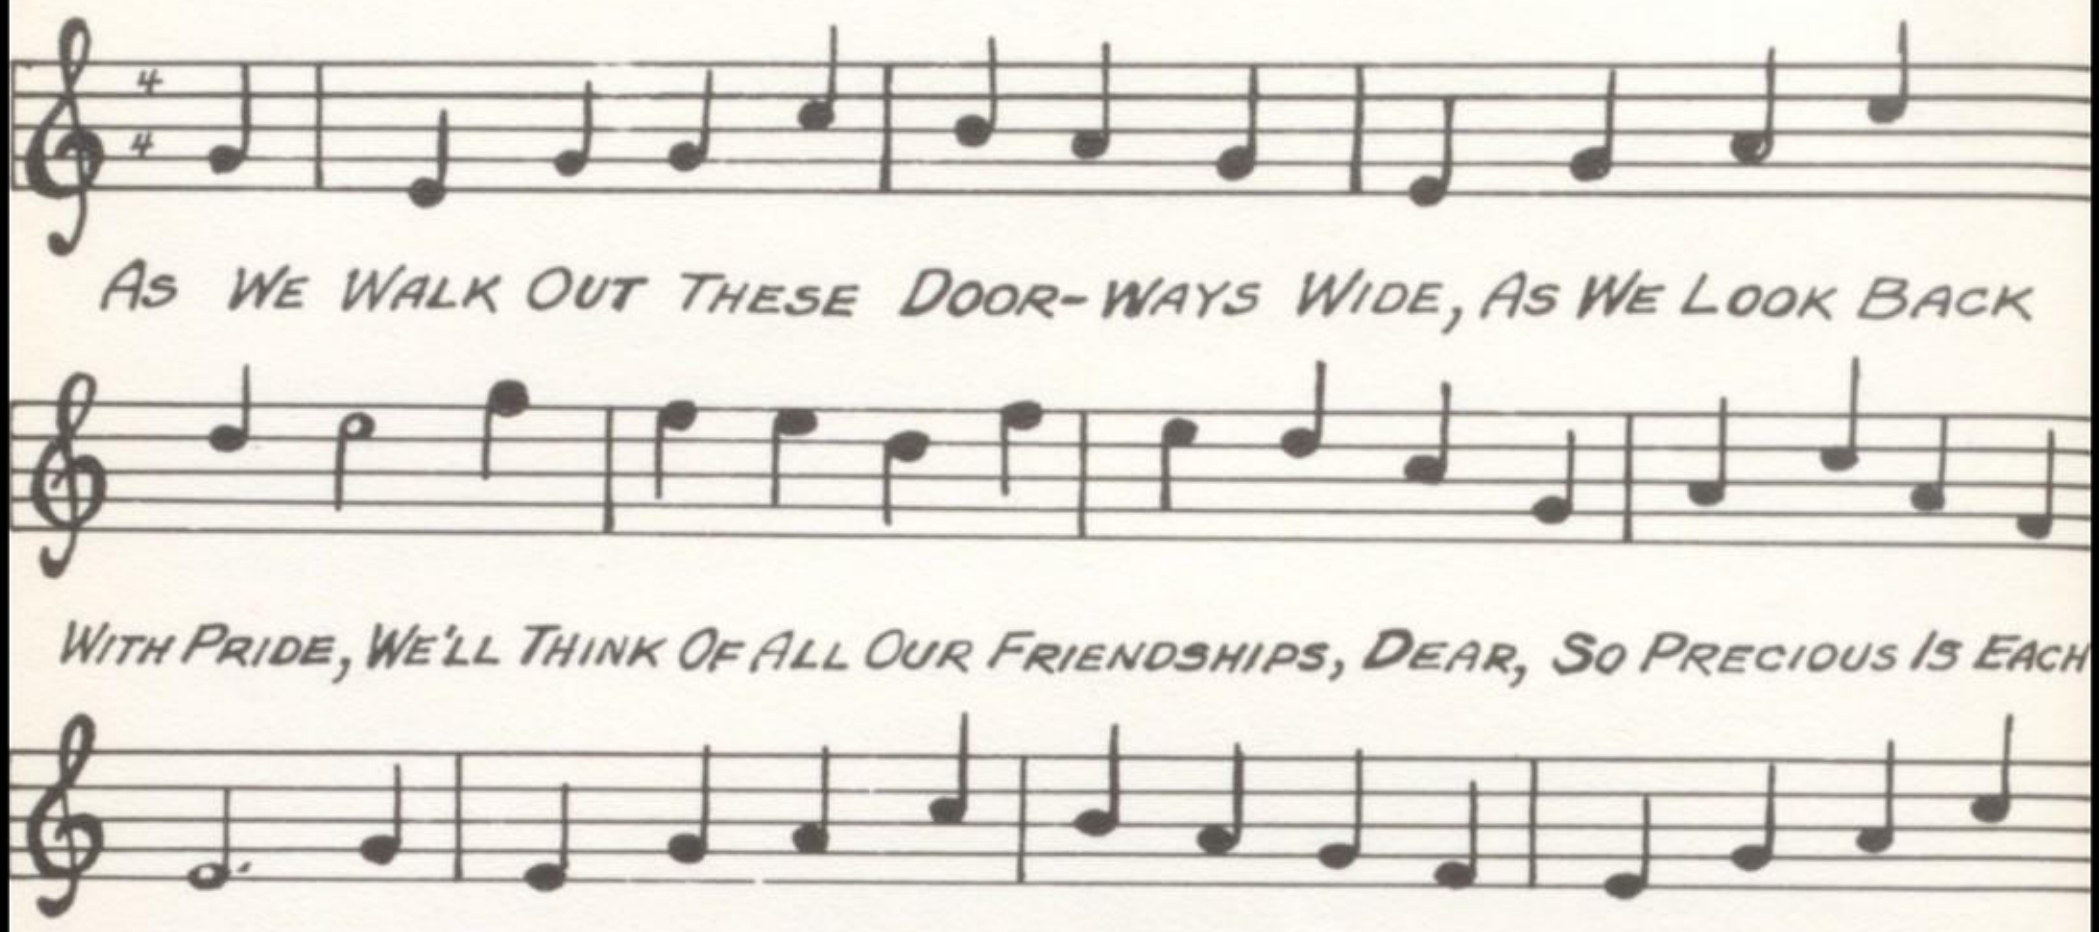
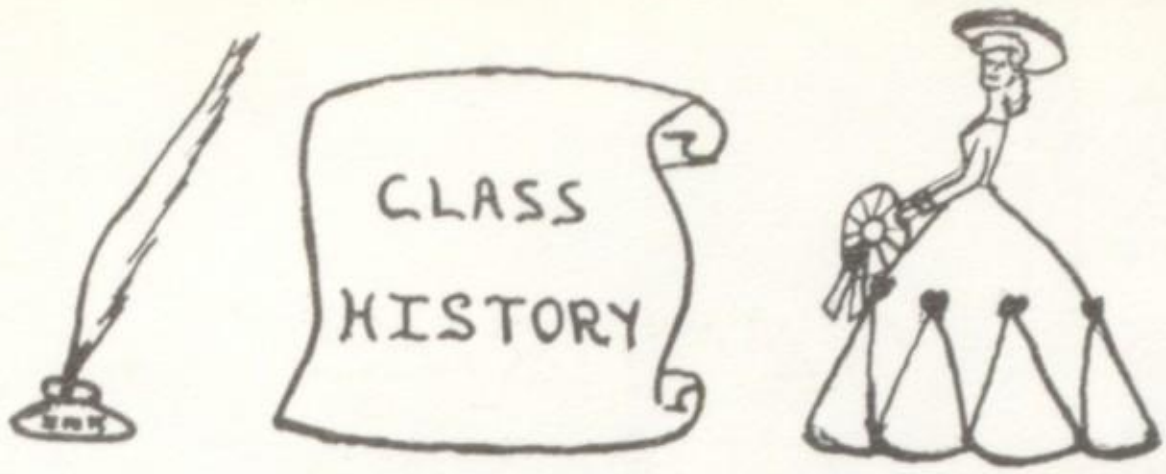
"MEMORIES"

By Kitty Lavender





We all remember that first day of school. It was exciting and fun. We felt grown up and old. We immediately started learning our A, B, C's. Naturally, our favorite period was play period, with assembly programs running a close second. Those of us who had talent joined the Rhythm Band and went on to greater things in the A.C.H.S. Band.

One of the memorable events was the Halloween Carnival. In our wierd costumes, we all went to the schoolhouse to fish in the fish pond, see the pretty girls dance and learn the identity of The Halloween King and Queen. Those were the days of gay events.

The Hit Parade is well-known today, but in grammar school, the song periods were our Hit Parades. "The Policeman" was everybody's favorite. The boys, however, had their originals for favorites.

Those of us who were in Miss Mary Smith's room in the fifth grade really had a ball; particularly on the class picnic. The boys chased the girls just as they have done for years (and will continue for many years to come), and the food was very good.

Our boyfriends and girlfriends in those days have changed considerably. Richard West was my boyfriend and Marianne and Annette R. fought over Dan Dismukes. Madelon liked Lomax, and Linda was Malcolm Esco's valentine. Speaking of boyfriends, we must tell on Mary Belle. We all hung our coats in the cloakroom each day until school was out. Mary Belle ingeniously found out which was Tommy Walker's coat. She wrote love notes to shame Casanova and put them in his coat pocket! The big romance lasted until the teacher caught Mary Belle and made her stay in. After that, Mary Belle decided that a boy just wasn't worth it!

One of the funniest memories is of Mary Belle, Jimmy G., Derrell, Betty Ann and Annette chasing Harriet P. home each day at lunch and after school. Of course Betty Ann wasn't satisfied with merely worrying Harriet to death. She devised a plan that should be long remembered. She joined forces with Annette and they waited for Harriet to come out on the sidewalk to jump rope. When the unaware Hariet began skipping with her rope, the two culprits pounced on her and took the jump rope from her. But, that is not all! They tied her to a tree with the rope, and left her screaming for help. When Mrs. Pigford asked Betty Ann if she had seen the missing girl, Betty Ann was Miss Innocence.

To look at Myrtis Bone, you'd say that she could really put a little girl like Joyce Ross under, wouldn't you? Not so in the hectic grammar school days. Myrtis was scared to death of Joyce. The reason? Joyce had whipped Myrtis in a fight!

Speaking of fights, Lomax can tell you quite a bit about his early experiences. Bobby Duncan used to really take care of our muscle man. Lomax would cry each time he got whipped. We told Lomax that he should not cry; he should be brave. Lomax looked at us astonished. "He hits me harder when I don't cry!" was his reply. Smart thinking, boy.

When we got to high school, it was like beginning all over again. Everything was so different. The seventh grade was a real wonder for all of us. Particularly did the seniors amaze us. We see now that they are not quite so amazing. The eighth grade was a time of studying and parties and elections. The ninth, tenth, and eleventh grades were filled with new boyfriends and school games and dances. In our Junior year, the prom was the biggest event of the year. We had a lot of fun decorating, developing ideas and missing classes. Mrs. Cooper was such a great help to us. Everything went smoothly as planned, and we were on Television. Mr. Cayton was the dancing star!

Well, this year beats them all. We were warned that the years would fly by, and they have done just that. We each have our special memories, but I'm certain that none of us will ever forget this senior year and the teachers who have helped us in different ways and each in a different manner.

Scoreboard

WETUMPKA TRIPS PRATTVILLE, 21-0

Sept. 13, 1957

An alert Wetumpka eleven took advantage of our Prattville fumbles to defeat the Lions 21-0. The visitors intercepted three Lion passes of which one went for a touchdown. Prattville pushed two drives into Indian territory only to fumble both times to the opponents. Marion Boggs, Mac Golson, and Cliff Woodfin turned in outstanding performances on defense for the locals.

PRATTVILLE NIPS HOLTVILLE, 6-2

Sept. 20, 1957

The Prattville Lions emerged the victor in a bitter struggle between two archrivals as the Lions whipped Holtville, 6-2. The Lions marched only 35 yards to score their first and only touchdown. After gathering in a Bulldog punt they moved rapidly to the winning margin. The climax came when Mac Golson gathered in a pass and ran eight yards to score.

CENTREVILLE DOWNS PRATTVILLE, 7-0

Sept. 27, 1957

The Centreville Indians came forward to play the Autauga County High Lions on their own wet, sloppy, and muddy field. Late in the second quarter when one of the Indians intercepted a pass thrown by the Lions and carried to the nine yard line. The Indians scored on the next play, and the extra point was good too.

PRATTVILLE UPSETS WEST BLOCTON, 6-0

Oct. 4, 1957

Only minutes after the opening kick-off the Lions started their magnificent drive when Mac Golson intercepted a pass thrown by West Blocton quarterback. The very next play Mac Golson went over for the only score in the ball game. The try for the extra point failed.

PRATTVILLE SLIPS PAST FORT DEPOSIT, 13-12

Oct. 11, 1957

The Lions traveled to Fort Deposit with a high spirit and under estimation of the Devils. Despite this the Lions were able to squeeze by the Red Devils, by a score of 13-12.

Tommy Thompson's power-driving was, undoubtedly, an essential factor to such a victory.

PRATTVILLE STOMPS ELECTIC, 20-0

Oct. 18, 1957

The Prattville Lions' big defensive line spelled the difference as they stopped a light Electic unit, 20-0.

Mac Golson led the Lions as he plunged over for one score after setting it up with a 20-yard gallop. Tommy Thompson and Dixon Chandler scored the other two.

HAYNEVILLE HALTS PRATTVILLE, 19-7

Oct. 25, 1957

The Lions saw defeat as the Blue Devils played host to the Lions at their Homecoming game.

The Blue Devils were fired up and ready to meet the Lions as they took the lead in the first half. The Blue Devils scored twice after blocking two of the Lions' punts deep in their territory. Edward Jackson made Prattville's only TD early in the second quarter.

CLANTON RIPS PRATTVILLE, 41-0

Nov. 5, 1957

The Lions journyed to Clanton only to suffer a great defeat. The Lions held it to 13-0 in the first half, but the Clanton Tigers came back the last half and ran wild. Our team faced one of the best teams Clanton has fielded in years.

PRATTVILLE SLIPS PAST MARBURY, 19-0

Nov. 8, 1957

Bouncing back after the Clanton game, the Lions defeated Marbury 19-0 before a large Homecoming crowd.

The Lions defense stopped every Marbury drive. Lomax Howell, Neeley Strength, Kenneth Ballard, and Leroy Wright were the main stays. Dixon Chandler and Joe Fuller both accounted for themselves at the end positions. Max Golson, Tommy Thompson, and Roy Grant turned in outstanding performances in the backfield.

PRATTVILLE TIES THOMPSON, 7-7

Nov. 15, 1957

The underdogged Warriors from Thompson High surprised the Lions as they went ahead in the first half, 7-0. The Lions came back in the last and tied the game, 7-7. Mac Golson ran off tackle for the TD and also made the PAT.

Both teams battled hard in the last quarter to break the tie, but neither team would give in, and Prattville saw their first tie of the season, 7-7.

AUTAUGA COUNTY

The Cloverland of the World

Population 18,186

Area 604 Square Miles

Autauga County is primarily agricultural; the principal crops being cotton, corn, feed stuffs, and livestock. It is also an industrial county with three large manufacturing plants — the Continental Gin Company, Gurney Manufacturing Company and March Manufacturing Company — in operation. The DuPont Manufacturing Company has recently purchased 1,000 acres of land near Prattville for future development as a plant site.

Autauga County has access to four main highways — U. S. 31, U. S. 82, U. S. 45 and U. S. 14. There are also approximately 80 miles of Farm-to-market roads in the County with several other projects under construction. The County is served by two mainline railroads, The Louisville and Nashville Railroad Company and the Gulf, Mobile, and Ohio Railroad Company.

The County has a vast water supply in the many creeks and the Alabama River, which flows through the southern part of the county.

There are four high schools which serve the people of Autauga County: Autauga County High School at Prattville; Hicks Memorial High School at Autaugaville; Billingsley High School, and Marbury High School.

Prattville is the County site, population 6,000, and is located on the G.M.&O. Railroad and U. S. Highway No. 31. A four-lane highway connects Prattville and the state capital.

By courtesy of the Board of Revenue, Autauga County.

FOUNTAIN CITY LOCAL NO. 1688

International Association Of Machinists, A. F. Of L.

Believing that the right of those who toil to enjoy to the full extent the wealth created by their labor is a natural right, and realizing that under the changing industrial conditions incident to the enormous growth of syndicates and other aggregations of capital it is impossible for those who toil to obtain the full reward of their labor other than through united action; and recognizing the fact that those who toil should use their rights of citizenship intelligently, through organizations founded upon the class struggle and acting along co-operative, economic and political lines, using the natural resources, means of production and distribution for the benefit of all the people, with the view of restoring the commonwealth to all those performing useful service to society.

Now, Therefore; we, the International Association of Machinists, pledge ourselves to labor unitedly in behalf of the principles herein set forth, to perpetuate our Association on the basis of solidarity and justice, to expound its objects, to labor for the general adoption of its principles, to consistently endeavor to bring about a higher standard of living among the toiling masses.
